Rosa Parks

1940s - 1950s by center on a bus humiliation.

Black people not = to white

Black people forced to use back door.

Bus drivers not let black on.

National buses changed so black and white could sit

But local stayed the same.

In 2nd world war promise football star Jackie Robinson

Refused to sit at the back of the bus when he was in army. Taken to military court. Black leader called

* Martin Luther King, who lived in Montgomery. If white on bus in Mont... and there were know more white seats black people stand up and move to back bus to allow white to sit down.

Rosa Parks ~~the~~ who worked for money in 1955 was sitting on the bus a white man got on and the bus driver told blacks to move to back. Rosa declined the offer was arrested. Martin Luther King protest on Rosa side ~~in court~~ when Rosa went to court found guilty and charged $114. From then onwards

Martin and his supporters didn't move when whites went on bus or boycotted the busses, and some whites boycotted as well.

bus. ~~the~~ company > lost lots of profit/money. The tried to make

Martin pay a fine he refused and went to prison for two weeks whole of America heard about it and supported boycotters.

Boycotter lasted 381 days. Ended winning 20th of Dec

1956

Best Boycutter Rosa Parker

Breaking news!

Rosa Parker and her starlight gang were found guilty not moving from her seat on a bus being a beastly black person.

She fortunately went to ^{court} prison and was set a fine of £44, but thanks to

Martin Luther King brother of black gang stopped some of ^{the} worse punishments happening to Rosa. From then onwards some of Martin's brave and idiotic supporters ~~went~~ did/followed Rosa's unbelievable performance.

Now we're not only talking ^{about} black badlies here, but also white ^{with} people too.

Imagine this this, 100s of blacks sitting on their seats not letting us royals sit down. But when you think it can't get any worse the gang goes to boycutting.

This was a crime indeed and Martin Luther King got sent to prison for two jolly weeks.

The profit per buses have gone down substantially.

vote for whites

vote for blacks

Rosa Parker a local hero, did the simplest thing you could do, but dangerous, she sat simply on a bus. But according to a Racest rule/law, blacks have to get up physically how ever old they are and walk to the ^{back of the} bus, but the brave Rosa stayed where she was. Martin Luther King followed this amazing performance along with his great gang. Soon out of thought the great gang along with some nice whites started boycutting the buses and now the precious profit per local buses has harmously gone down.
